1923 Architect's Drawing

Rumors Fly! The Bengal Staff discovered this to be true, when we planned the book to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the present high school building. Actually the building is only 49 years old, somebody goofed. Instead of changing the theme, we decided to go ahead, after we had accumulated the materials. We have tried to show the changes, which have taken place in the past years. Reflecting on the progress made in the past 53 years, we realize we have much to look forward to in the future.

Yellow school buses, automobiles, cycles, and feet bring students to EHS. Entering the door one makes a bee line for the Student Center to eat breakfast. Food isn't the only thing on their minds; a few are concerned with chemistry tests or members of the opposite sex. The excitement starts at activity period, with a pep rally on third floor. Unfortunately we have to settle down to the main activity of school, classes.

(a) Ask Bobby Henry or Bruce Gilbert how they like riding on a yellow jacket.
(b) The pep rally in the halls of EHS boosted the football spirit to a soaring high.
(c) Forging the Electra River is the first task of the school day for Karen Thomas.
(d) Mrs. Brewer's bookkeeping tests are a challenge to many students.

Afternoon — More Study, Play, Rest, Work

(c) Mae West (Suzanne Hunter) and John Wayne (Terry Calhoun) paid a visit to the Trick or Treat Follies.
(e) Students and Ex-students enjoyed the band parents ice cream supper.
(f) Merilyn Monroe goes in for an easy two points against Henrietta.

Evening — Ahhh---

c.

Evening activities show the variety of interest of E.H.S. students. Sports were the main attraction as football filled Thursday and Friday nights during the fall, followed by basketball during the winter months. Special events, such as plays and the Halloween Carnival brought a welcomed variety. The typical Saturday night activity was a movie and then there was ahhh---

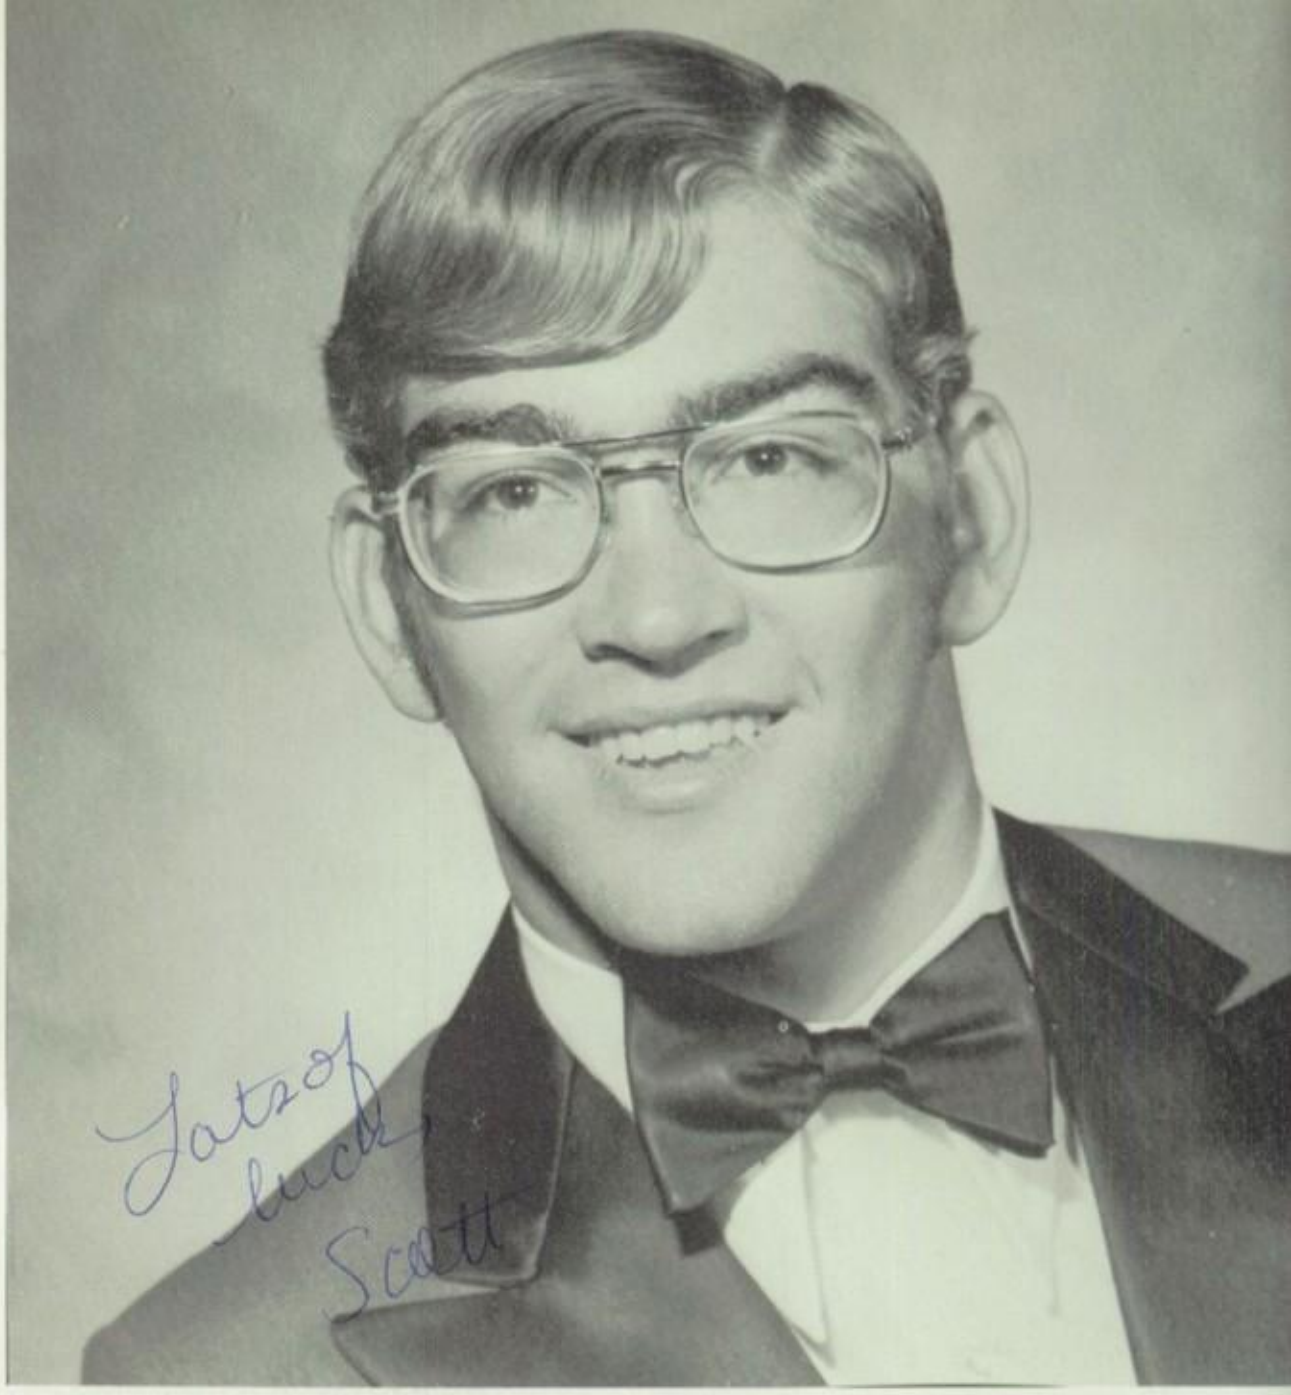
(g) "Will I ever be able to do this part in front of the class," ponders a nervous Sarah Melton.

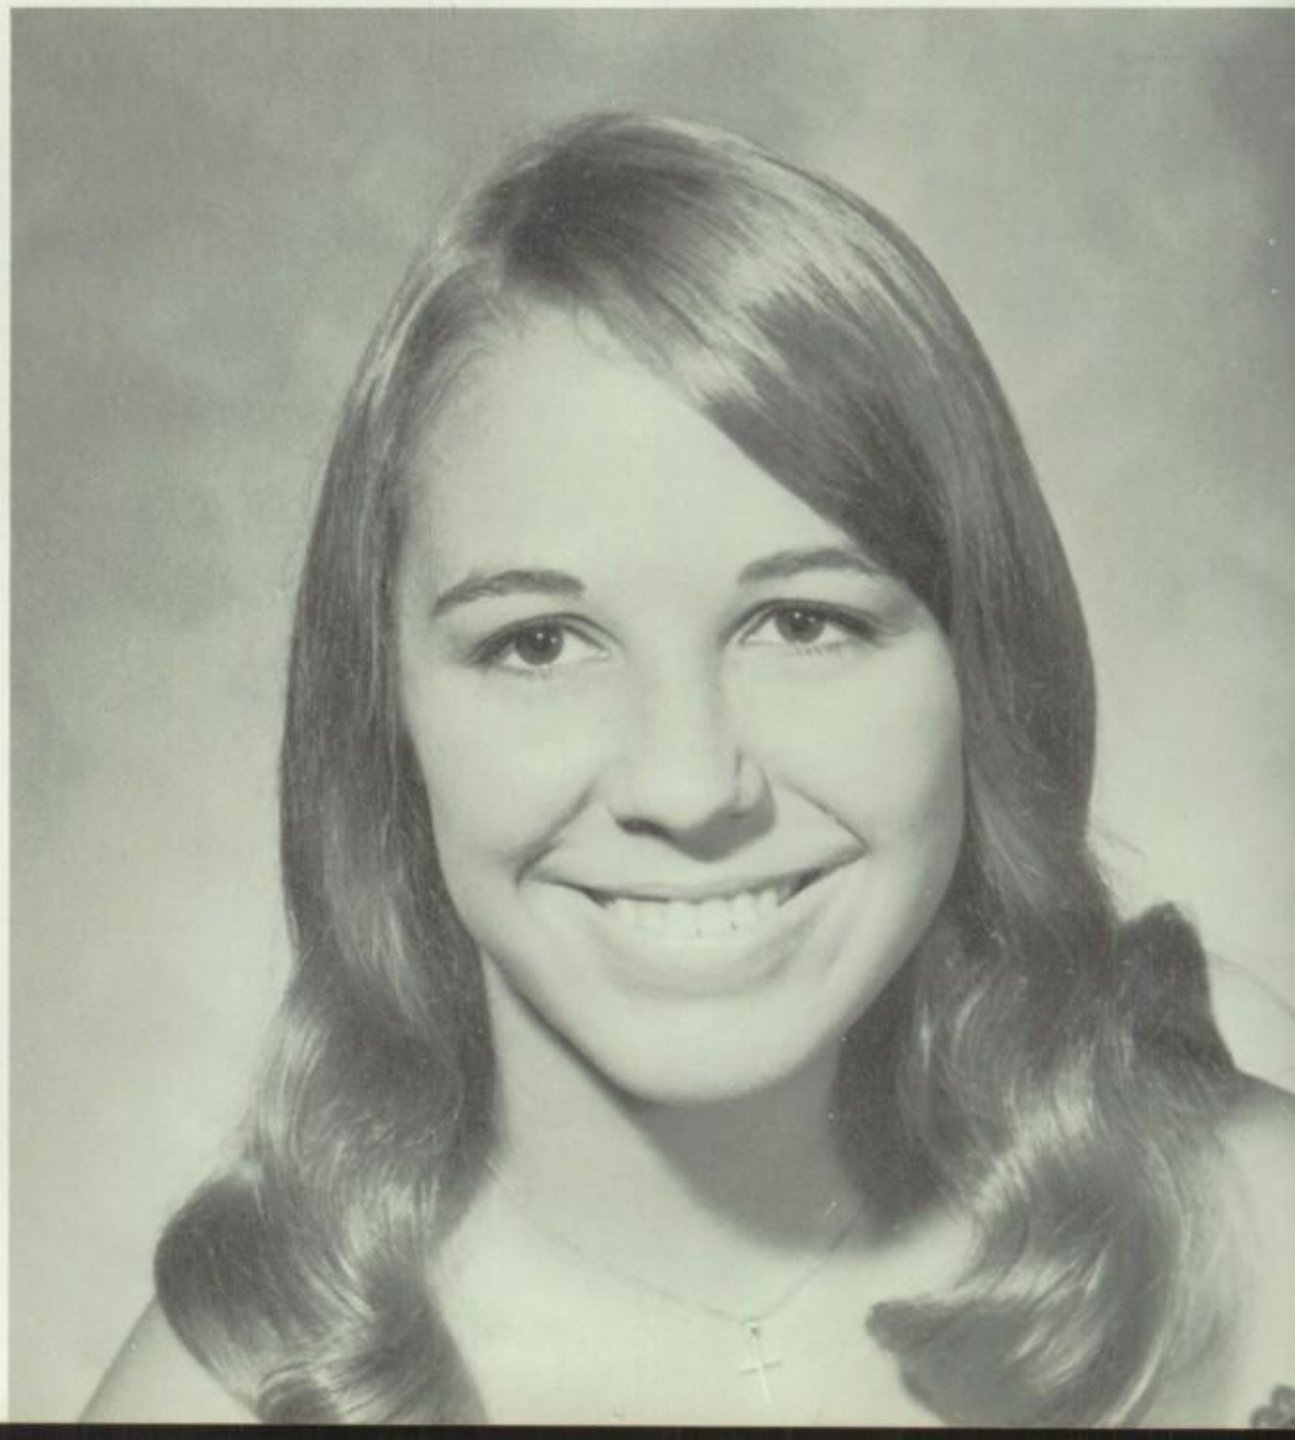
Mr. E.H.S.

Scott Isbell, Mr. EHS, has proven himself a leader to all the students and teachers at Electra High School. He has shown his outstanding abilities in sports by participating in football, track, and basketball, receiving honorable mention in basketball; while still maintaining a 90+ average to participate in National Honor Society. Scott was selected by the teachers as outstanding student his sophomore and junior years. He was elected Junior Class President and President of the Student Council his Senior year. Also his membership in many clubs and activeness in school functions has helped gain him the honor of Mr. EHS for the 1972-73 school year.



Miss E.H.S.

Being active throughout her High School career more than qualifies Pat Milby for the honor of Miss EHS. Although being active in many extracurricular activities such as tennis, Pep Squad, Drama Club, and F.H.A., she has been able to uphold a 90+ average qualifying her for National Honor Society. She served as an officer of her class through all four years of high school and participated in Interscholastic League events, competing at region in typing. Pat's outgoing personality gave her the privilege of being in the Junior Play and representing her class as Beauty in 1972.



Tracy-
It been a short year and it's hard to

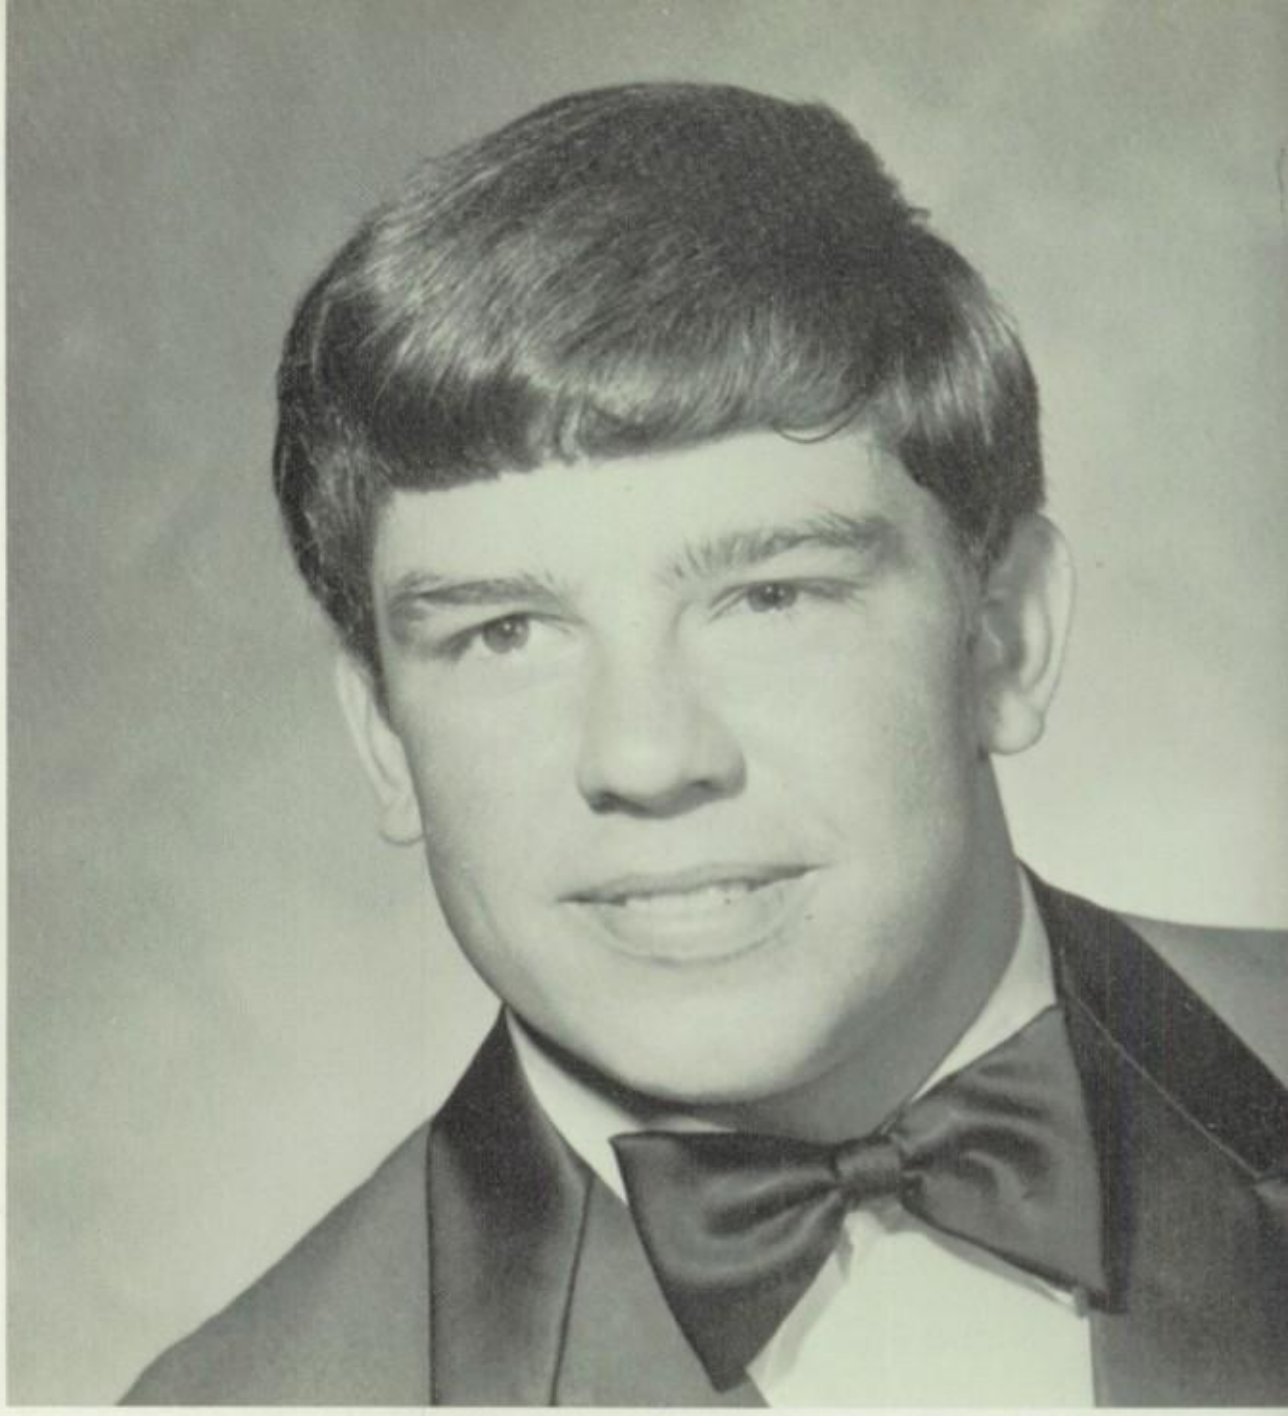
Most Typical Boy

Most Typical Boy for the 1972-73 school year at Electra High School is Cary Klein. He was a class handsome his Junior year and held a Senior class office this year. Cary has proven himself to be a great asset to the school in the area of sports. He participated in football, basketball, and track throughout his four years at EHS, achieving the honor of all-district tackle and linebacker his Senior year. Cary also served as secretary his Sophomore year and President his Senior year of the Future Farmers of America Club.



Most Typical Girl

Lesia Rodawalt received the great privilege of being named Most Typical Girl of Electra High School for this year. Her outgoing personality and sense of humor combine to make her an excellent choice. She has been an active member of FHA and Student Council during her first three years in high school. She participated in basketball, and tennis capturing the honors of all-district in basketball and reaching second in Region in Tennis. Lesia accumulated many honors from her own class serving as a class officer for two years and class favorite her Sophomore year.

BESSIE CORDER—AGE 17.

"BESS."

Year on Team, Second. Position, Side Center.

Bessie was the best of centers. She played a fast game, and very few could equal her at that position. She played in almost all the games and was the cause of Electra's many victories. Bessie will be back next year and there is a place waiting for her on the team.

OREON HALL—AGE 18.

"SQUEE DEE."

Year on Team, Third. Position, Forward.

Oreon, although the smallest one on the team, holds a very prominent place. She is so fast, that it takes a fast guard to stay near her. Her place on the team will be hard to fill.

LUCILLE KENNISON.

"SPEED."

Year on Team, Second. Position, Guard.

Lucille, our standby as guard, held a very important place on the team. Lucille was right there [illegible] the ball, and her forward found it a hard proposition to [illegible] from her. Lucille will play again next year.

Spirit Thrives After 50 Years

Even though football has been in existence at Electra High School since 1923 it still is the most enjoyable and most exciting sport in school today. The game of football has progressed in 50 years from an unorganized, canvas helmeted, lightly padded, and unequipped group of school boys to a well coached, physically fit, hard hitting, football team of young men.

The Tigers of 1972 ended the season in the snow against the Shamrock Irish with a 6-6 tie. The Tigers gave many fans an exciting and impressive year. Losing thirteen players last year did not seem to handicap the Tigers for they ended the season with a 3-5-1 record.

(b) Coaching the Tigers for 1972 are (standing) Troy Gilbert and Dan Hamrick, (kneeling) George Heck.

(d) Serving as the Tiger captains for 1972 were seniors Larry Walker, Terry McAlister, Ricky Burroughs, Jerry Durbin, Terry Bruce, Scott Isbell, and Cary Klein.

d

Teamwork — A Must For

(b) Bobby Smith (71) and Scott Isbell (14) team up to tackle a Nocona Indian.
(c) Terry Bruce (22) runs to the sideline hoping to pick up a blocker.
(e) A fumble at Nocona caught the eyes of Terry McAlister (61), Ricky Burroughs (67), Randy Duren (50), Cary Klein (82) and Scott Isbell (14).

(c) As Clark Jones (33) and Bob Whitecotton (21) rise after a defensive stop Cary Klein (82) looks on.
(e) Stopping the Seymour line are Terry McAlister (61) and Billy Thaggard (10).

Electra - 0 ... Holiday - 7
In a rough defensive struggle between the Tigers and the Eagles, the Eagles finally managed to score with 3:01 minutes left in the game.

Electra - 0 ... Notre Dame - 0
Coyote Canyon was the setting of a battle with the Notre Dame Knights and the Electra Tigers. Both teams put up defensive fronts, but penalties stopped many of the drives.

Electra - 26 ... Crowell - 6
Victory was in the minds of the Tigers when Lynn Lott ran 32 yards for a touchdown. Scott Isbell scored two more, and Crowell scored their only touchdown - all in the first quarter. Jerry Durbin scored the last touchdown in the third quarter.

Electra - 0 ... Nocona - 25
A blocked punt and two long runs by the Nocona Indians spelled doom for Tigers. Although the Tigers came close, they failed to find the end zone.

Electra - 6 ... Bowie - 22
Due to the overpowering size of the Bowie Jackrabbits the Tigers only scored once. Lynn Lott was the scorer.

Electra - 21 ... Quanah - 0
The first touchdown came in the second quarter by Jerry Durbin. Terry Bruce's two long runs in the fourth quarter totaled for 119 yards. The three extra points were kicked by Scott Isbell.

Electra - 8 ... Seymour - 21
An interception and a fumble recovery by Cary Klein proved to be the Tigers only defense against the Seymour Panthers. Lynn Lott scored with Terry Bruce making the conversion.

Electra - 6 ... Childress - 40
The Tiger defense showed the fans another fantastic first half. But the Bobcats dominated the second half with our only touchdown coming in the fourth quarter.

Electra - 6 ... Shamrock - 6
Through the snow and cold weather the Electra Tigers and the Shamrock Irish battled for the pigskin. Shamrock made the first touchdown in the second quarter.

(a) As the snow fell, so did a Shamrock Irish.
(c) The Tiger defense once again holds the tough Holiday Eagles.

Outstanding Exes: Mary Jane Cole Robinson and Keith Rollins.

The half-time entertainment during the wet and muddy Homecoming game against the Quanah Indians, October 20th was highlighted by the crowning of Karlyn Roberts as 1972-73 Homecoming Queen. The announcement was made by Mr. Olan Bourland while the band played "Tara's Theme" from the movie Gone With The Wind.

Mary Jane Cole Robinson from Oklahoma City and Keith Rollins of Waco were announced as Outstanding Exes for the 1972-73 year. This honor was introduced this year in place of the traditional Coming Home King and Queen.

Tiger Band Lets Go

The Electra High School Band had a great year, starting off by receiving a rating of excellent at Marching Contest in November. In May the band traveled to Amarillo to compete in solo, ensembles, and concert contests. For the extremely hard workers it was a very good year.

Organizations

Organizations have always been a major part of school activities. While studying was the key to job opportunities, organizations were the key to our success in society. FHA, FTA, Drama Club, FFA and the many other clubs gave us time to participate in extra-curricular activities with fellow classmates and teachers, giving us a chance to understand other human beings along with understanding ourselves.

From the selling of ads, through the planning of layouts, to the last frantic, hard-working times to meet fast approaching deadlines, the 1973 BENGAL Staff has attempted to capture and record some of the moods and happenings of EHS. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Sachse, the thirteen junior and senior staff members have endeavored to produce a book worth of Electra High. Not all was work, however, as the staff had parties to celebrate Christmas, the last deadline, and the arrival of the Bengals.

Student Council Revises Constitution

Revision of the Constitution to up-date election methods was the first order of business for the student council. In serving the student body, the council met with the school board and worked out a new dress code. They also were successful in obtaining a juke box for the old gym. The Boys Miss America Contest was a smashing success and a new tradition was started. Donut sales were held as usual.

Drama Club Presents Farce

A fall production of THE NARRENSCHNDER with Kim Horton, Terry Calhoun, and Carolyn Miller, started an active year for the Drama Club. Members of the club planned to have night meetings in the EHS auditorium to learn theatre games and watch several films. Throughout the year they planned to attend several play productions at Midwestern University. The type of productions they attended ranged from HAMLET to THE APPLE TREE.

National Honor Society

To be a member of National Honor Society is a great honor held by Juniors and Seniors maintaining a 90 grade average. Since only 15% of the classes are eligible, the selection of the students is also based on service, citizenship and cooperation. Nine Juniors and one Senior were added this year. Mr. James Stockton was sponsor of the organization.

Active Students Named To Who's Who.

Eleven students are selected each year by the teachers at E.H.S. for the honor of Who's Who. Qualifications for this honor are not only maintaining an A average and no more than one B, but also participation in school activities, cooperation, citizenship, and attitudes. This year four seniors, three juniors and two sophomore and freshmen were selected.

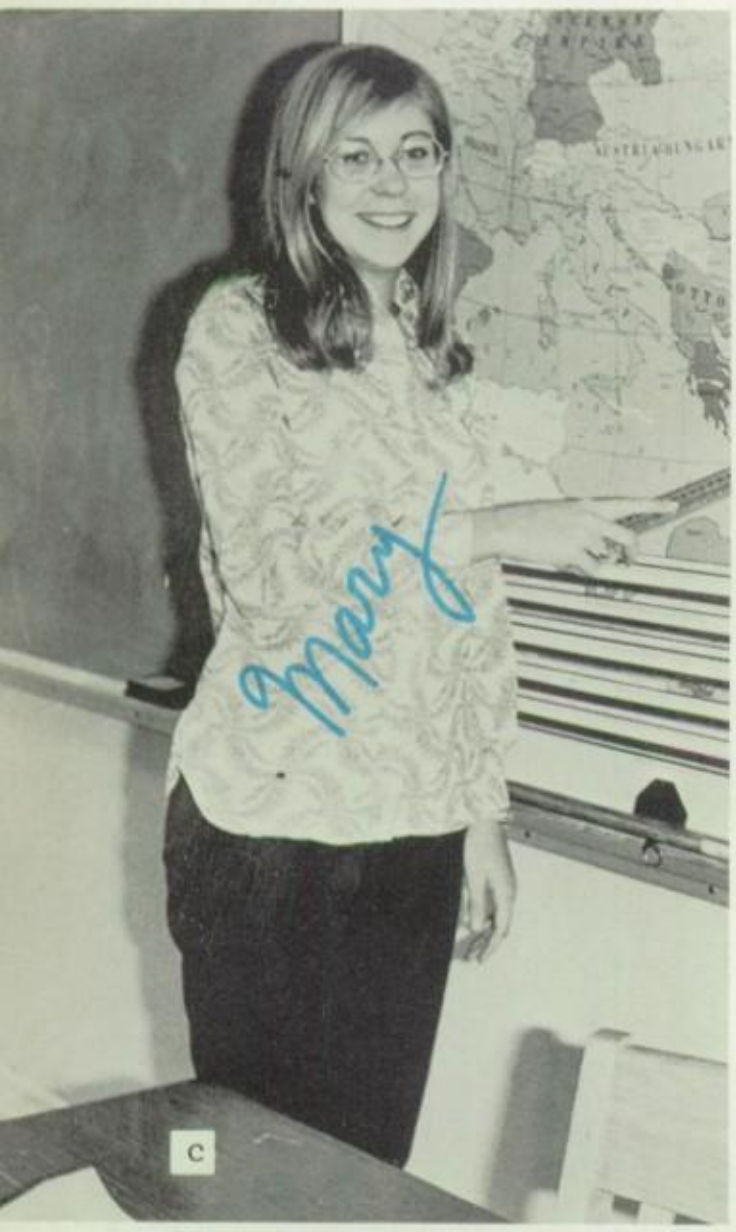
Good Grades Qualify Students

Outstanding students at EHS are active in many extra-curricular activities, ranging from football to being library assistants, and still maintain an A average. Enthusiasm and desire proved their outstanding qualities and helped earn them the honor of being named Who's Who.

(a) Football required much of Bob Collin's time, but he still maintained a high scholastic average. (b) Placing trophies of Electra teams into their case, Elain Benton showed a true spirit of endorcement and participation.



(c) Mary Jacobi pointed out old empires of new interest as she displayed her knowledge of World History.

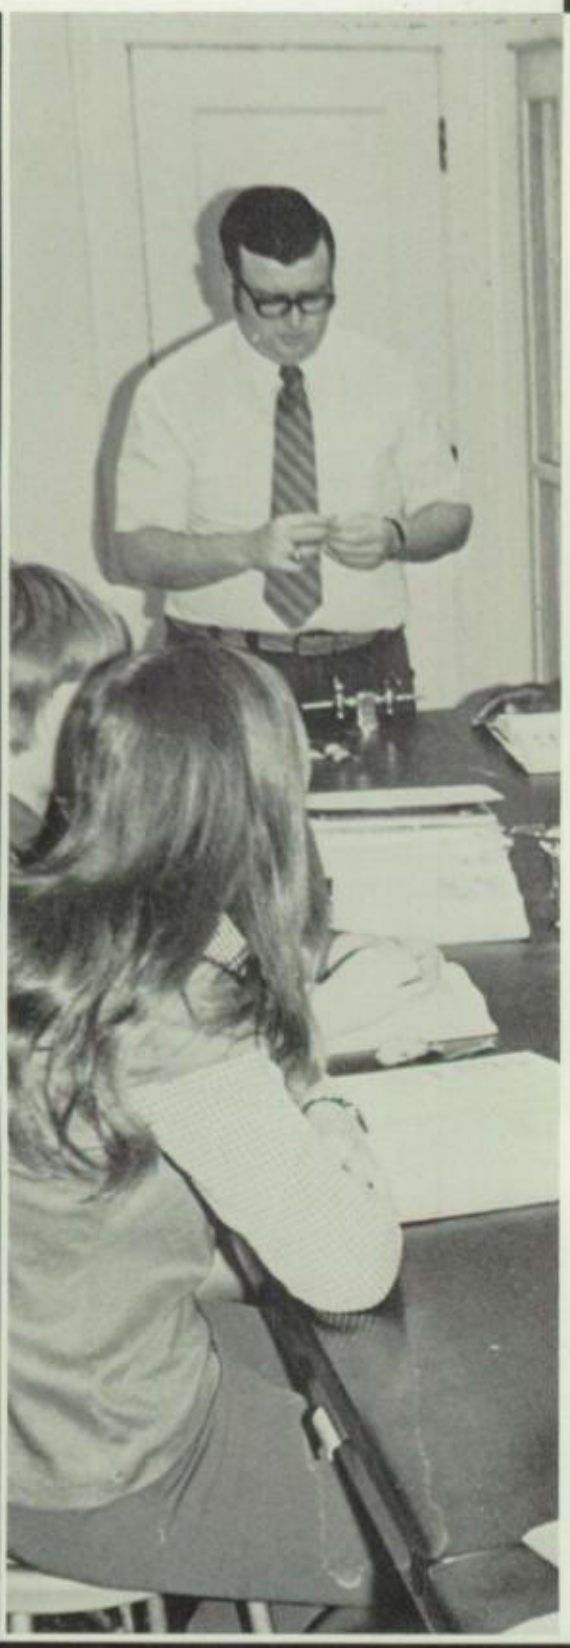
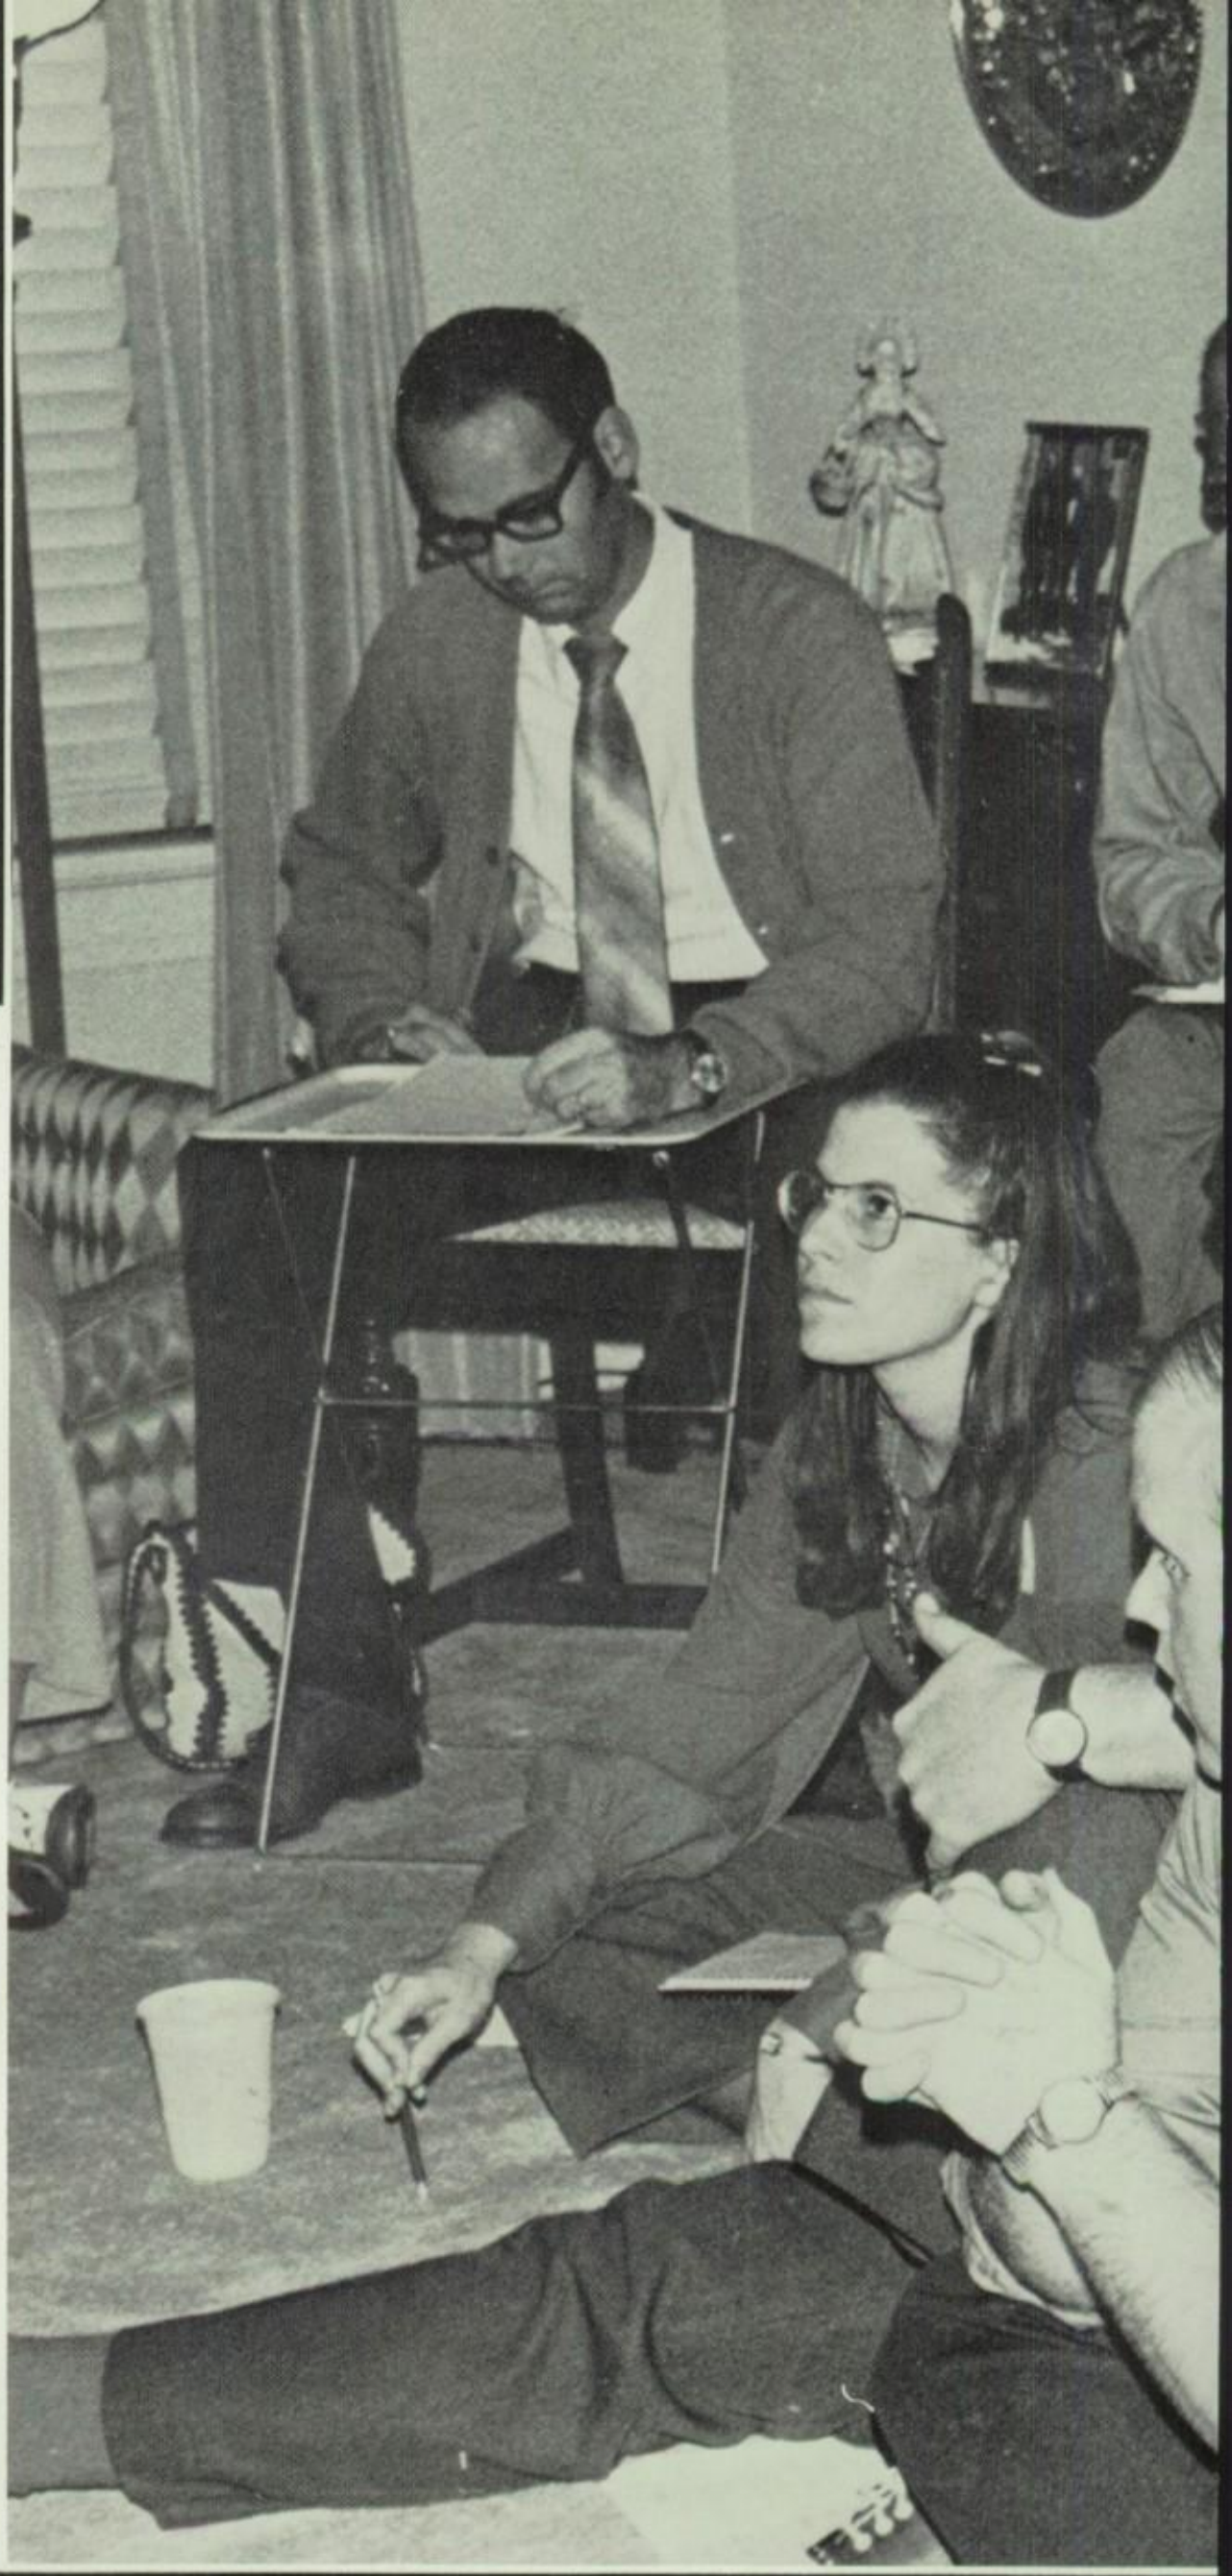
Faculty



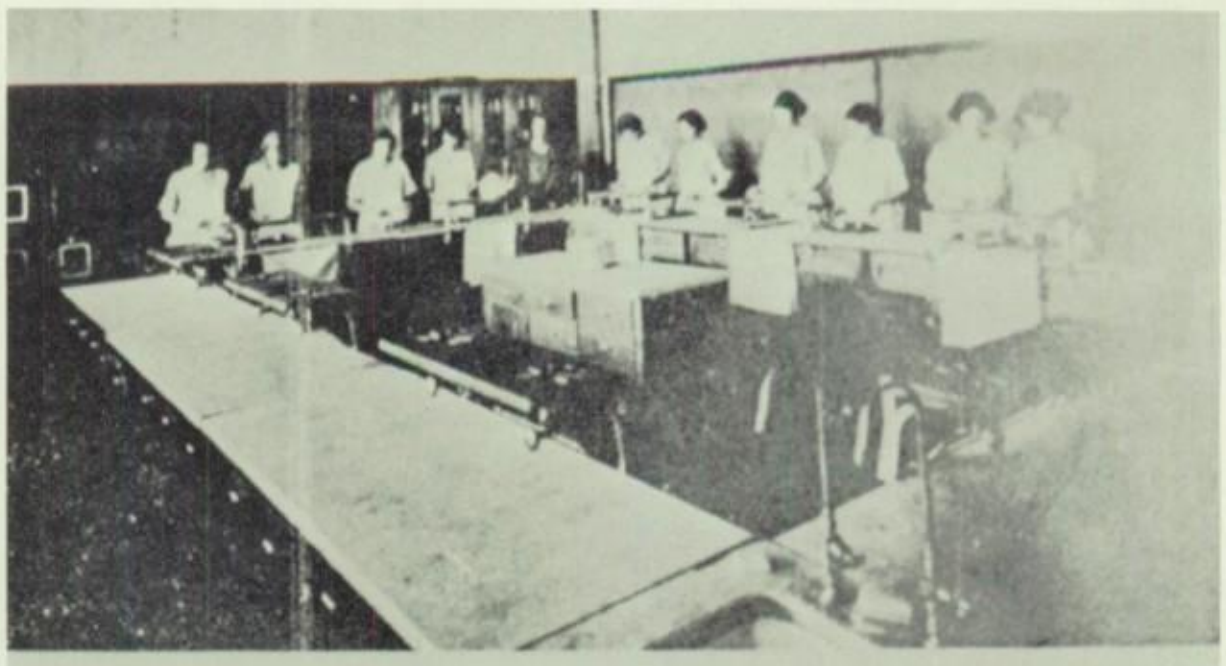


Readin', riting', rithmetic' were the dominant subjects in the 1920's along with history, and domestic science. Today we have seen new courses in our curriculum: psychology, home and family life, journalism, vocational and commercial subjects.

Not only have the kinds of classes changed, but the methods of techniques have also undergone innovation. Teachers are using visual aids, record players, cassette players, tapes, and film strips, to create more interest.

Teachers attend workshops, night school and summer school to keep up with the improvements in education.

The students of EHS are thankful for the teachers, facilities, and improvements they have been able to have. They are proud to say, they feel better prepared for the future.



DOMESTIC SCIENCE ROOM

Superintendent Directs Improvements

Under the direction of Mr. Weldon Snodgrass, superintendent the Electra School System saw several improvements this year. Sturdy new glass entrance doors made the high school more attractive while an evaporative cooling system was added to Dinsmore Elementary School. Mr. Snodgrass's leadership ability was exhibited in his election as Rotary Club president.

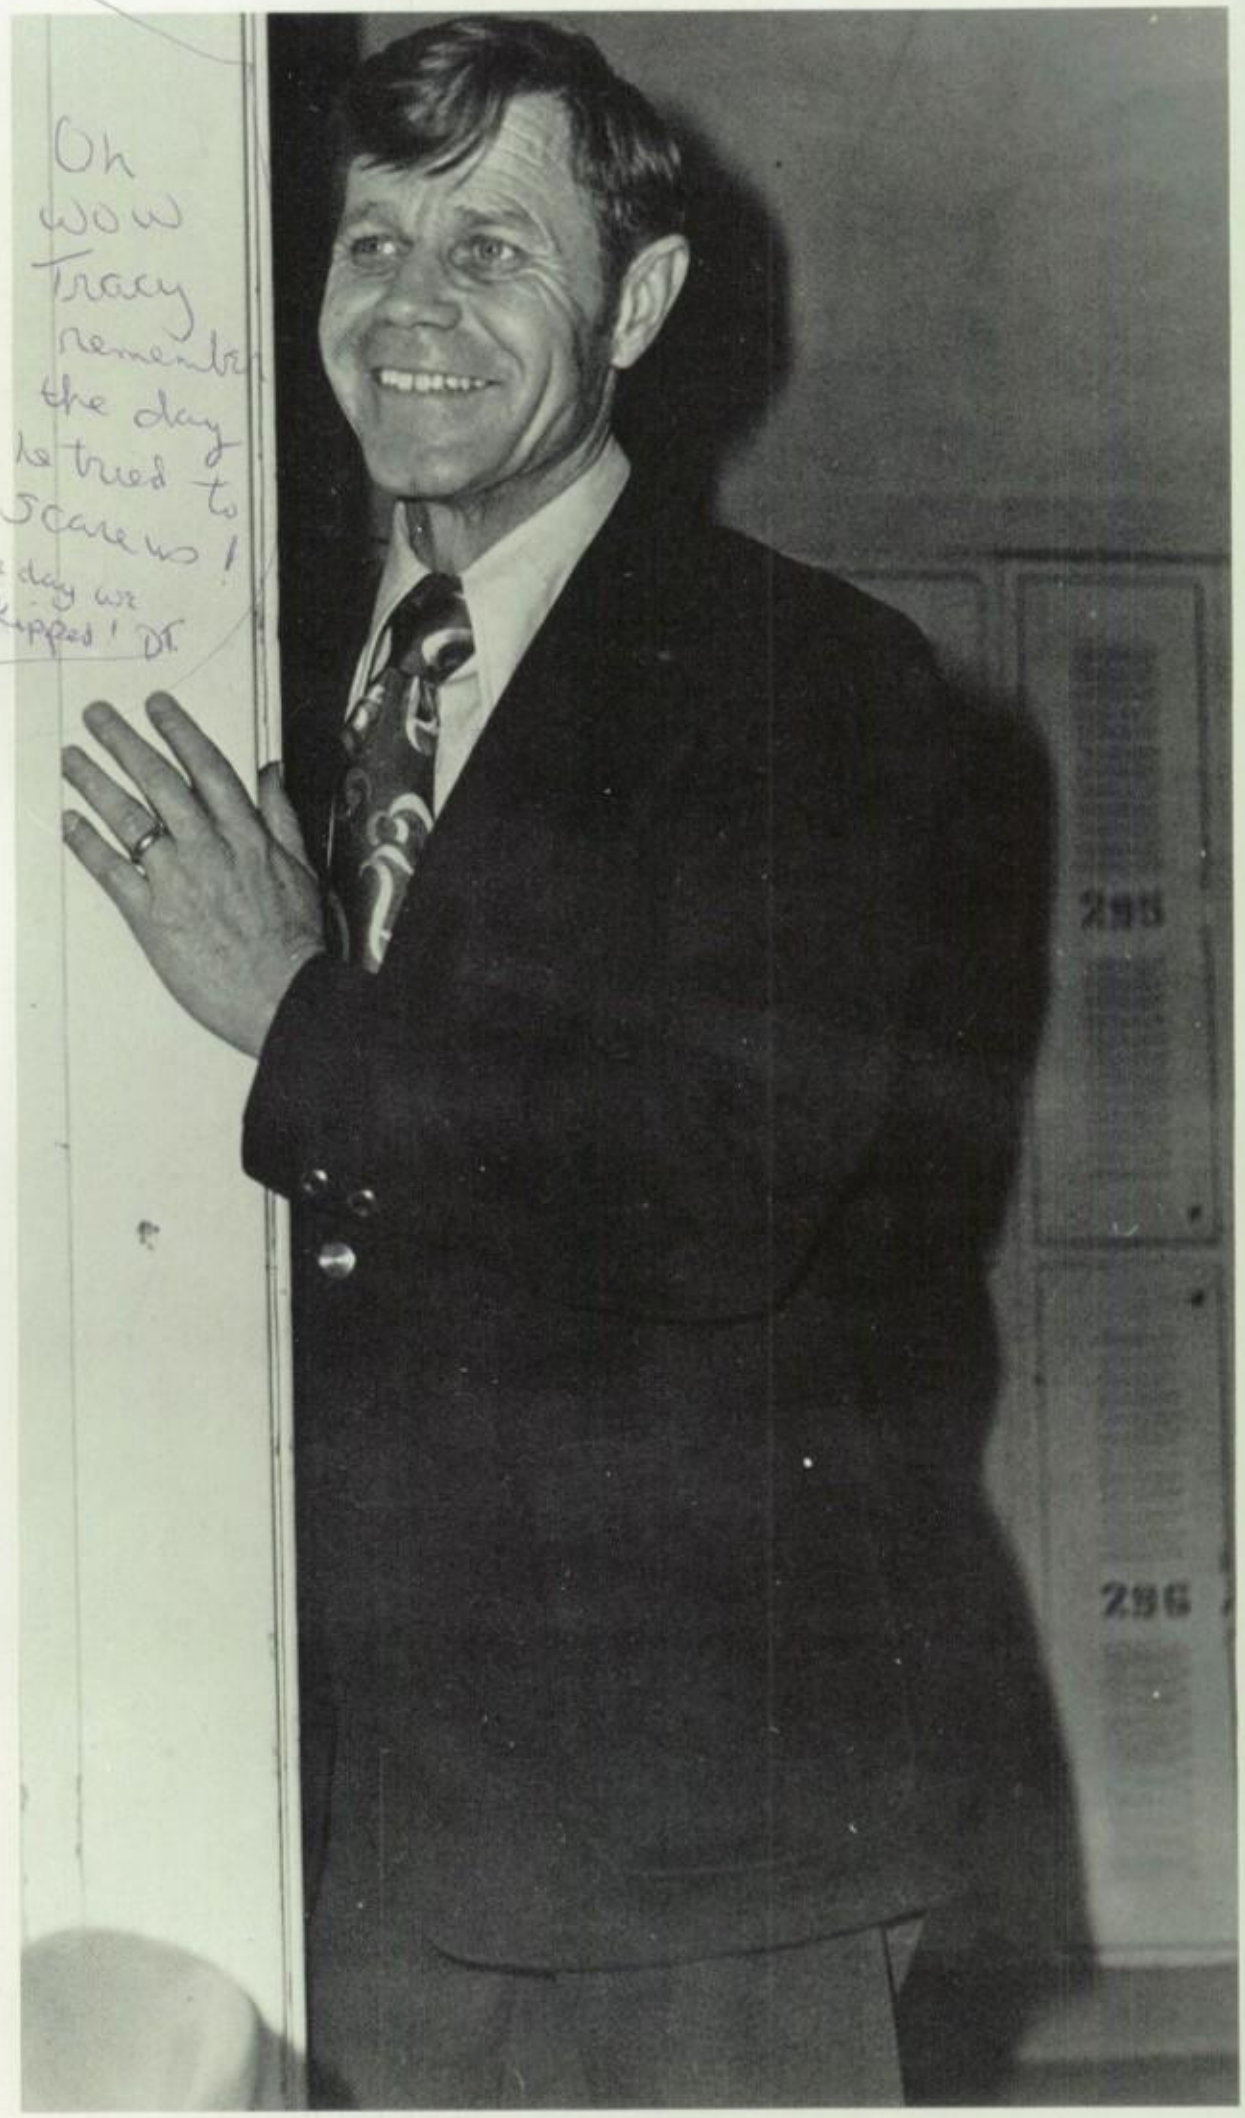
Principal Asset To School

A valuable asset to the school, Mr. Keith Sales, principal, proves to be a versatile individual. Serving on the board of directors of the Electra Chamber of Commerce, on the Legislative Committee of the District IX TSTA, and as a member of the Wichita County Child Welfare Board, Mr. Sales still maintains an open line of communication with his students.



(a) Mr. Howard Smith provides an invaluable service as counselor to students in college or career choices. (d) As secretaries to the superintendent, Mrs. Faye Pritchett do much behind-the-scenes work important to the school.

(b) Mr. Rodney Smith serves the Electra School District as tax collector-assessor.

(c) With her charm and efficiency Mrs. Ozell Brasfield, secretary and registrar, makes the office a pleasant place to visit.

(a) Debbie Phillips and Beth McClellan think Biology is a "wormy" business.

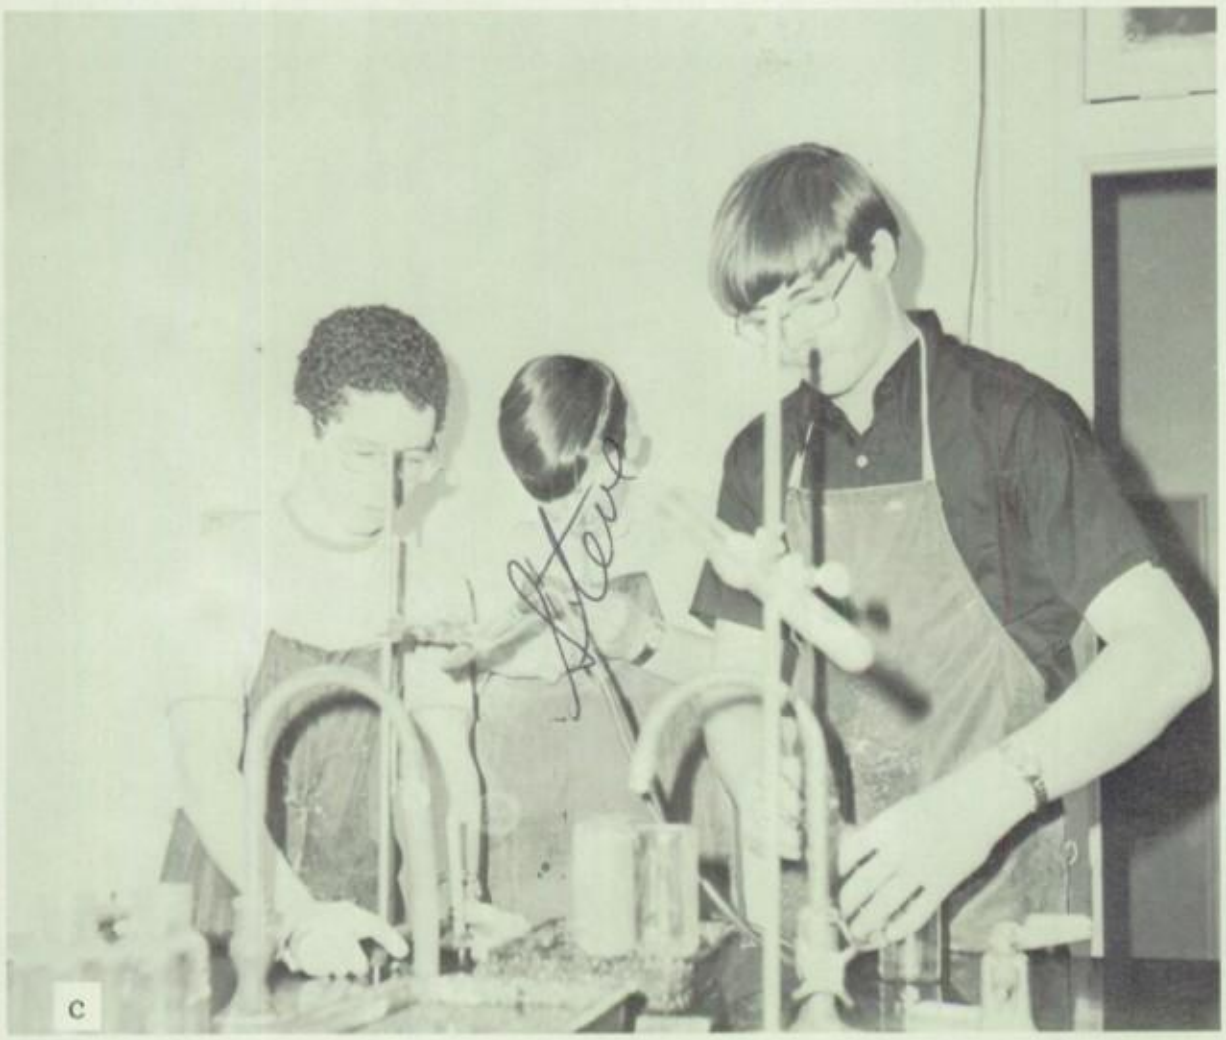
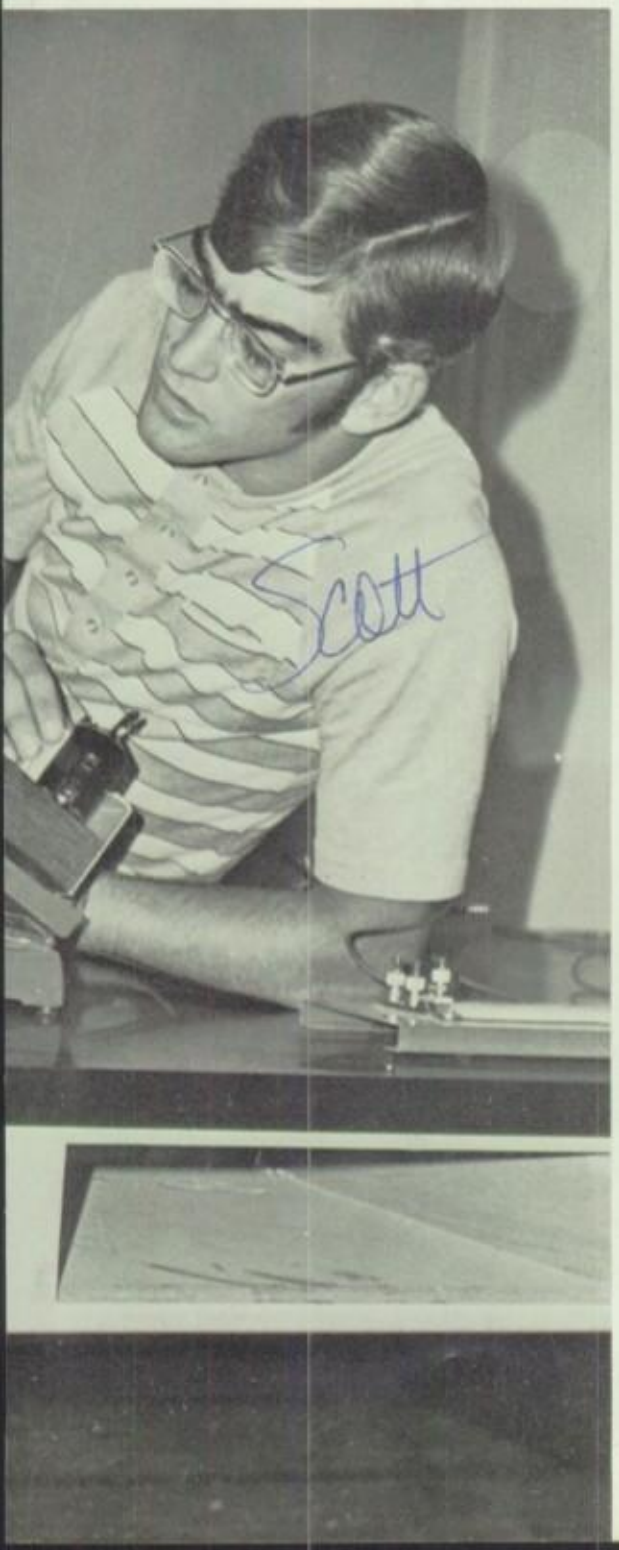
(d) "Ouch," cries Charles Smith as Mr. Bourland pricks his finger for a blood test. Mary Jacobi looks on with disgust.

(e) Attempting to solve an inclined plane problem are Michael Campbell and Scott Isbell.

Students Gain Experience In Labs



The Science Department welcomed Mr. James Stockton back to its classes after a year of absence to work on his Masters'. With him he brought the new concept of group-level teaching, which he used in his Physical Science classes. Individual experimentation was the key this year as students put their knowledge to work in the labs.



(c) Junior scientists, Larry Cunningham, Steve Mowat, and Jimmy Jacobi hope their experiment won't result in an explosion.
(f) Organizing the annual flag football game, along with being tennis coach and yearbook sponsor, keeps Mrs. Elizabeth Sachse busy. She teaches Biology, Health, and P.E.
(g) In addition to teaching Physical Science, Biology, and being Junior Class sponsor, Mr. Olan Bourland still found time to announce the Tiger home games.

Unusual Activities Spark Interest

The language department employed various devices in their classes to create a desire to learn. Students tried their hands at poetry, editorials, essays, and expressed their innermost thoughts in the journals required in Junior and Senior English. The presidential race between Pres. Nixon and Sen. McGovern inspired fiery campaign speeches in English and Speech. Spanish students perfected their accents with the help of the portable language lab, purchased last year.

(a) Her interest in theater made Mrs. Eleanor Dorsett the perfect Drama Club sponsor. This lends variety to the English III and IV and Speech classes she teaches.

(d) Entering into the spirit of the national election, Mr. Palmer's classes staged their own elections with campaigns and speeches.

(e) Billy Thaggard listens closely to the headphone as it murmurs "sweet nothings?" in his ear - in Spanish.

(b) Mr. Robert Palmer, an experienced bus driver, teaches English II and III, Journalism, and is Sophomore class sponsor.

Library Exhibits Growth

As the unusually long hot summer extended into October, students found refuge in the cool sanctuary of the library which was blessed with three new air conditioners this year.

The library has also added a new cassette player with educational tapes and film kits covering any subject.

(a) As assistant librarian, Mrs. Mae Dean Beebe brightens the first floor with her colorful bulletin boards. She also teaches choral.
(b) In addition to being head librarian and Senior class sponsor, Mr. Billy Don Clark found time to work at the stadium gate during football season.

New Ideas Employed By Commercial Classes

(a) Once over the initial shock, Kim Ray found that his Bookkeeping practice set would provide him with many hours of fun and entertainment.
(b) Mrs. Barbara Brewer grabs a moment's rest from her busy schedule of Typing II, Bookkeeping, Psychology, Sociology, and Shorthand. She also rode herd on the Senior class as sponsor.
(e) Shorthand is supposed to be hard, but does it really take three hands, Lesia?

Great Door!!

Visiting a kindergarten, going to court, painting cave-dwelling pictures with shaving cream, sculpting. These creative projects were introduced to the Psychology and Sociology classes by Mrs. Brewer who taught them for the first time this year. The courses were enlivened by her innovative ideas.

Tracy, It has really been fun having you in Class. Watching you squirm and become impatient. Hope to see you in class next year. You are a pretty young lady. Good luck and Best Wishes. Mrs. Rich

The typing classes added several new typewriters while shorthand students improved their skills with the help of dictaphones, tape recorders, and records. Bookkeeping classes enjoyed films on the efficient new computers being used by most banks.

(c) Mrs. Patsy Rich, Business Math teacher and Typing I and II instructor, enjoyed decorating her door for Homecoming. She led the Cheerleaders and Pep Squad in spirit as their sponsor.
(d) "Oh no, not again!" is a frequent wail heard from typing students like Sherie Miller who find that perfection is hard to come by.

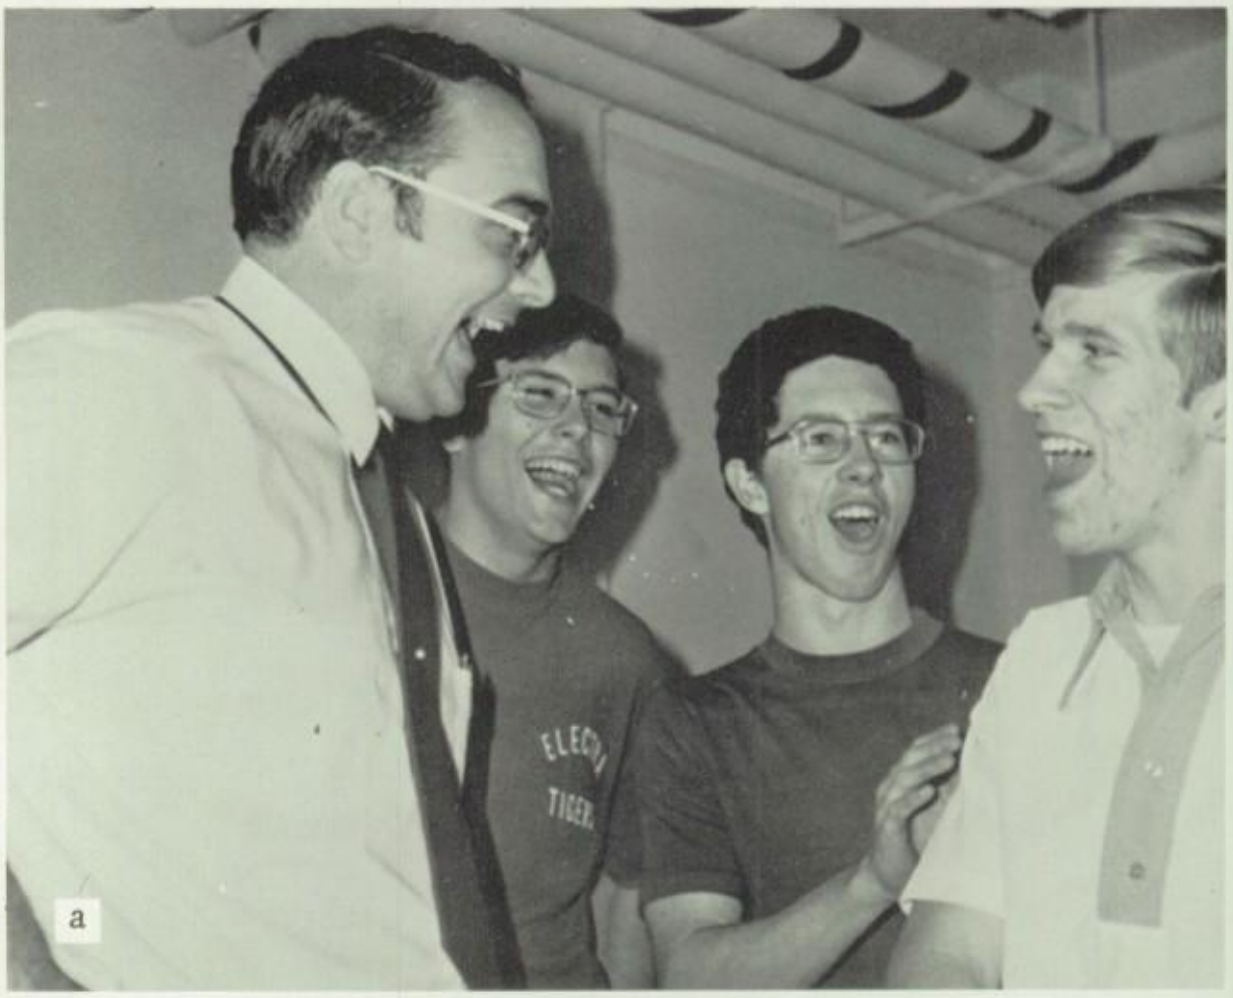
(f) Mr. Jones and Mr. Hatton relax in the boiler room before they get back to their custodial duties.
(g) Mr. R. T. Birchfield works hard to keep the gym in shining order.

History In The Making

History classes this year watched history being made. This was a year to remember. The tragic Viet Nam war finally ended and all over the country POW bracelets came off in celebration of prisoners of war's joyous homecoming. World wide TV audiences witnessed the last Apollo moonshot, ending an exciting era of moon exploration.

Flags flew at half-mast and the nation mourned as it buried former President Harry S. Truman, and 28 days later, former President, Lyndon B. Johnson.

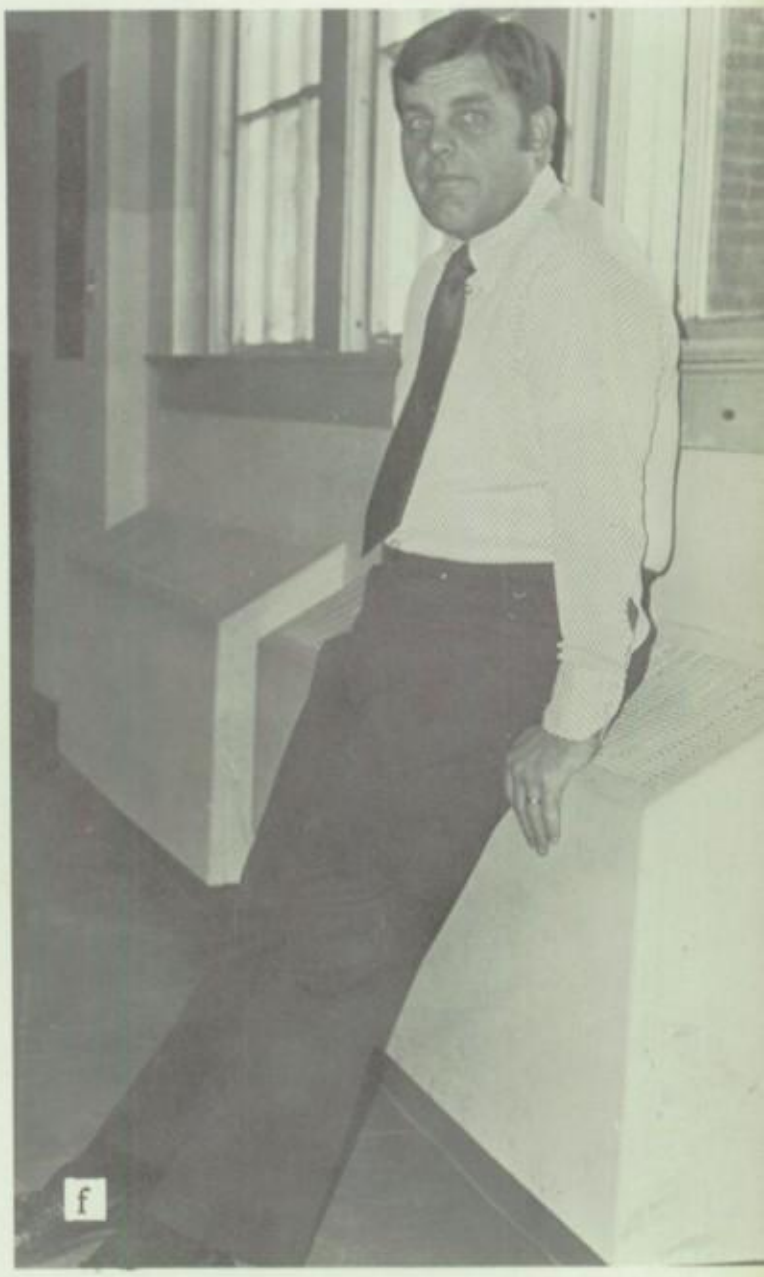
Eighteen year-olds voted in their first presidential election, reelecting President Richard Nixon.



(d) During activity period, these World History students study "current events." (a) Always ready with a joke, Coach Troy Gilbert enlivened his World History classes with his sense of humor. A welcome addition to the athletic department, he was assistant football, basketball, and baseball coach.

(b) In his first year here, Coach Dan Hamrick taught American History classes, was assistant football coach, and coached the boys' varsity basketball team.
(c) Lifting weights on the Universal Gym proved to be a challenge for freshman Rhonda Kays.

(f) Keeping an eye on the halls between classes, Coach Richard Mason posed for a picture. He taught Civics and Texas History and was athletic director, head football coach, B-team basketball coach, and golf coach.



(e) Civics classes divided into groups to study drugs and drug laws.

Math Courses Undergo Changes

Math courses underwent many changes this year in effort to meet the different levels of the student body. Related Math was replaced by Fundamental Math, and Algebra courses were broken down into introductory classes, thus enabling the students to learn at their own degrees of understanding.

(a) Shelley Lunsford confidently works a problem before the class.
(b) Does Terry Hayes think math is a "dry" subject?

It was agreed upon by all Seniors that their final year was the best. They supported the Tigers in all aspects, for another tremendous athletic year. They increased their monetary funds by having several suppers, the Halloween Carnival Follies, selling candles, and selling a homemade blanket.

All spring the seniors could sense the excitement of a trip. After graduation they would all go their separate ways but each of them would remember their years at EHS.

Leading these Seniors in their many projects were sponsors, Mr. Billy Don Clark and Mrs. Barbara Brewer.

The year of 1972-73 was a very eventful year for the juniors. This year's class sold more magazine subscriptions than any previous class. The Junior play was a great success and proved to be profitable for their funds. The class eagerly awaited the arrival of their senior rings while preparing for their future responsibilities of becoming a senior.

Two people to whom they are very thankful for helping and keeping them interested and in the spirit are Mr. Olan Bourland and Miss Mary Jane Macias.

This year the sophomore class showed great promise as next year's juniors. They excelled in selling Tiger pens and did very good with their concession stand at the tennis tournaments. The class members participated in most of the school activities and fared well in all athletics. These things will help to uphold their spirit in the next two years at EHS.

The sponsors who helped in getting these sophomores started were Mr. Robert Palmer and Mr. Graham Bollinger.

After getting adjusted to new surroundings and teachers, the Freshmen soon began to get into the swing of things. Even though the freshman year is not very active as far as group activities are concerned, many members of the class were active in sports, clubs, and other projects. These freshmen did a good job in taking part in things and getting the spirit stick.

Mr. James D. Stockton and Mrs. Hesteline Burroughs helped make these beginners become relaxed and an important part of high school.

Throughout the past 53 years many things have changed. But things that never change are those moments of happiness, joy, sadness, and frustration which each student experiences during his high school days. Individually we all have a purpose and a goal which we should try to fullfill. For the seniors this is the most important time of their lives because each will have to decide on that goal which he hopes to reach. For the underclassmen there are still those many days left to enjoy high school.

Well this year
Right? The only problem
Don't stay out of trouble. But
I'll always remember you
Because we've been such close friends.
I'm so glad you & I found each other
You're really a very sweet person
Cause you made my Freshman year so much fun!
For her. Stay that way! I'll always
Cause you want ya to more but if you're going to a party you better
I don't want you do to take care of my part! OK? Stay cool

Tracy,

Even though I still don't know what's going on. I'am really enjoying this. You're a real good friend and I've really enjoyed being in Spanish with you.

I hope we have as much fun next year as we've had this year.

Lots of Love,

Ruth

Tracy, Spanish wouldn't have been the same without you! It was been fun going to class with you. Debbie Phillips

Dear Tracy,

I have enjoyed knowing you and having you in class these last two years. Even correcting you has been fun — you know the dumb things you and Julie shouldn't say in class! You were a better English student than Spanish student but then you can't have everything. I'm looking forward to having you and your smiling face in class next year.

Love,
Miss Brous

Tracy –

Well, this has been some year, hasn't it? So many things have happened. Tracy, I have always been glad that we were once close friends. I learned things then that I don't think I will ever forget. Stay cool and someday you'll make it to where you want to be.

Love & Peace,

Terri Ethyl

Tracy,
You have been one great friend. I'm so glad that we have always been close friends no matter what. I really hate to see you move but I guess it will be best for you. I know you will be very happy where you are going. It will be nice, I know.

-Jenny-
To a girl that has a style of her own & kind heart. Have a nice day.

-Tracy-

We've picked up our friendship again this year. I've enjoyed the fun along with the serious talks. I hope we continue to be close friends. Thanks for keeping to stand on my own two feet. It is a little hard sometimes. (If you know what I mean) Let's keep up the fun? Okay? Stay the same and you'll have to go far in life!

Love,
Darcy

-Tracy-
Oh hell, I don't know what to say. Look I've made it through another year, and we've got one hell of a summer coming up. How will we ever make it? I sure will live this very thing that is coming up. You know what I mean, about Harlan and all, the same thing was happening last year at this time. Remember? We were going to have to haul some more partip, so don't forget to let me know. Good luck Always Anita
